CONFERENCE

April 5 CHARTING A COURSE - Meeting the Special Education Needs of Foster Children

Registration requests are still being accepted for the April 5th web conference on the special education needs of children in out-of-home care and the state policy efforts that will meet these needs more effectively. This event is the second of a new web conference series on child and family policy, co-sponsored by Chapin Hall and the National Conference of State Legislatures. The web seminar will take place from 1:00-2:00 pm EST. Space is limited and not all registration requests can be accommodated. The April 5th panel includes:

- Cheryl Smithgall, Senior Researcher at Chapin Hall Center for Children
- Bernadette Pinchback, Manager of Foster Youth Services for the San Bernardino County Superintendent of Schools
- Gene Griffin, Management Team Coordinator at the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services
